

My Friend!
A LETTER printed last week concerned. It was not long before names were submitted. Now, unfortunately, letters mailed to the Times will have to include telephone numbers and each will be verified.
Thankfully, names included on the letter in question were so well known we didn't DREAM anyone would use them without permission. But somebody did and we are on you.

RECENTLY learned that Mrs.
John (Marie) Sawers, the friendly lady in the first stand at Mechanics Bank, has had a mild heart attack and been hospitalized for about two weeks. Understand she will be home by the time you read this.

FIRST LT. GARY KECK is among Albany servicemen who will be spending not only Christmas but his Dec. 19th birthday in Vietnam. He hopes to be home in mid-January, according to Major and Lee, his parents. They thought that because the Times has Gary's address it would automatically be included in the Yule club list. Actually, the names would be submitted again to the Chamber of Commerce (in writing) before Nov. 27.

IF YOU'RE looking for a place to donate your newspapers, aluminum foil, glass of all kinds and retained aluminum or tin cans, advised that the first weekend of December, Dec. 5-6, from 9 to 5 p.m., you may take the items to the Northbrae Community church parking lot, which will be manned. Proceeds from newspapers are turned over to the Boy Scout troop. Also, every weekend they accept newspapers at the Co-op Garage in Berkeley, across the street from the Food Co-op.

PETE LYON, a seventh grader at Marin school, has informed us that they didn't elect Ronald Reagan in their class election. It was 39 for Jess Unruh and 22 for Reagan, indicating Unruh won at least one election Nov. 3.

HAPPY THANKSGIVING! It will be a splendid school holiday for Albany children, celebrating Thanksgiving on Thursday and trying to see the AC Transit Santa Claus Friday, when the decorated holiday bus will be at San Pablo and Solano Avenues from 10:40 to 10:45 a.m. St. Nick (Nicholas P. Alevisos) will distribute candy canes and talk to youngsters.

NOTICE

Berkeley Post Office will observe regular holiday schedules on Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, Nov. 26. Mail will be picked up from deposit points on normal holiday schedules and processed for outgoing dispatch, but there will be no regular window or delivery services.

Special delivery service will be available, and the Main Post Office lobby will be open for mail deposit, access to lock boxes and purchase of stamps from vending machines.

Dowling, Randisi Win Golf Honors At Leisure Town

Tournament co-chairmen Wayne DeTar and Lee Porter could not ask for more perfect conditions for the AMGA monthly tournament. The site for the tourney was Leisure Town Golf Course in Vacaville on Nov. 15. The club enjoyed its best turnout of all time with some 50 players.

Dennis Dowling attacked the course the way John Brodie would attack a defense, surely and methodically. The young teacher from Santa Clara fired 41-39—30 with his 19 handicap for 61 and first place in the low handicap flight. Beside this Dowling won the hole-in-one contest with a shot some 8'10" from the hole on the 160 yard 10th hole. If that wasn't enough he also eagled the 425 yard 14th.

Bob McWilliams, celebrating the birth of his son, Thomas Clarke, fired an 81 to go with his 15 handicap for a net 65 and second place in the low handicap division. Third place in the flight was taken by Ed Herrera, who fired an 88 with a 19 handicap for 69.

In the high handicap flight, sandbagger Randy Randisi, playing for the first time with his 36 handicap, carded a 102 for a 66 and first place. Bill Chambers copped second place with his round of 89-20—69. Jim Murphy, playing during the week, fired 106-36—70 for third place. Rich Yamashiro, playing in his first tourney, coralled the blind bogey flight.

Notes and quotes: The club would like to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Steve Bogart on the birth of their daughter, And Mr. and Mrs. Bob McWilliams on the birth of their son.

Variety of Items On Council Agenda Monday

Albany City Council had a variety of items on the agenda for its regular Monday night meeting.

A report of action cannot be printed because of early publication of the Times for Thanks-

B. Turner submitted a report concerning the area south of Marin

Mallard applied for an alcoholic beverage license because a partner has been dropped.

North Bay section of East Bay
Soccer stadium committee, asked Council about areas which might be used for soccer and help for soccer facilities.

School Superintendent Kenneth
M. Forry wrote Councilmen about a program leading to better bicycle safety. Students from Marin school had submitted a communication regarding anti-trash pollution drive, and Turner and Chief of Police Ralph M. Jensen bany, urging the city to support the school's Lockheed Drug Program for seventh graders.

BERKELEY GARDEN CLUB SUPPORTS CONSERVATION

Conservation is an important interest of the Berkeley Garden Club. Last year it completed payment on its pledge of $800 to Audubon Canyon Ranch, famed meeting place of the American Egret and the Great Blue Heron.

This year it is continuing its program to help reforest California and is now working on its 13 Penny Pine Plantation, at the cost of $68 each. The club also contributed $100 to the Nature Conservancy recently for its San Francisco Bay Project.

The Nature Conservancy is a non-profit organization of their natural values. It has purchased two parcels of key Bay lands for the San Francisco Bay Project to date; 80 acres on Dumbarton Point to serve as a sanctuary for numerous shorebirds and to protect a nearby colony of harbor seal, and 330 acres on Lower Tubbs Island at the north end of the Bay.

Lower Tubbs Island is a vital feeding and resting place for migratory birds using the Pacific Flyway, and a winter habitat of large numbers of canvasback ducks. Over 65 kinds of birds have been counted here, including such rare species as the California clapper rail and the white-tailed kite.

The Conservancy has offered the 330 acres on Tubbs Island to the government as part of the recently approved San Pablo Bay National Wildlife Refuge. It is expected that the plot at Dumbarton Point will become a part of the much larger wildlife sanctuary in the southern end of the Bay, and which is now under consideration by Secretary Hickel and the Department of the Interior, if it is established.

The Berkeley Garden Club is affiliated with a number of other conservation groups as California Conservation Council, California Roadside Council, Save the Redwoods League, Save San Francisco Bay and the Native Plant Society.

FOUNTAIN LODGE

Fountain lodge 503, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, will hold a dinner for Odd Fellows Fri., Nov. 30, at 7 p.m., at Albany Masonic Temple, 533 San Pablo Ave. "Chef" George E. Porter will serve the meal. Noble Grand Mike Dietrich will preside.

Red Cross Seeks Money for Pakistan

American Red Cross has made an initial allotment of $25,000 to aid victims of the cyclone and tidal wave which devastated vast areas in Pakistan, according to Claude Daughtry, Berkeley-Albany Red Cross chapter chairman.

The donation was made in response to an urgent appeal from the East Pakistan Red Cross, relayed through the League of Red Cross Societies in Geneva.

Because of the high cost of shipping relief material half way around the world, the American Red Cross will provide funds with which needed relief supplies can be purchased in Pakistan and neighboring countries, and will not seek donations of relief materials "in kind," Daughtry stated.

Monetary contributions marked for "Pakistan Relief" may be sent to the Berkeley Chapter, American Red Cross, 2116 Allston Way, Berkeley 94704. All such contributions are tax deductible and will be transmitted in full to the East Pakistan Red Cross.

Tronoff Wins Award

For his suggestion calling for certain vehicles to be serviced with gasoline at District headquarters which will save the East Bay Regional Park District an estimated $1,600 annually, Charles Tronoff, Construction Supervisor, has received a $50 award.

Tronoff lives at 934 Madison St., Albany, and is employed by the EBRPD Plans, Design and Construction Department.

CATHOLIC AID

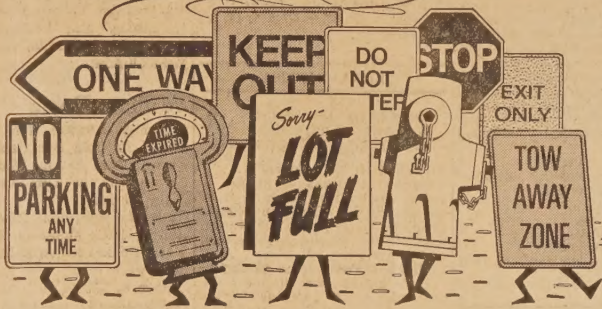

Ladies Catholic Aid, branch 54, will meet Tuesday, Dec. 1, with Mrs. Ray Aguayo presiding. Refreshments will be served by Marie Vargas and Angie Vila.

The annual Christmas party will be held at Kirby's in El Cerrito Plaza Tuesday, Dec. 8. Reservations must be made on or before Dec. 1. Call Margaret Hanahan, 525-6338.

The Mail Bag

Editor the Times:

RE: the anonymous letter which appeared in the November 18th issue of the Albany Times, in which the last names of 41 citizens were listed.

In view of the fact that 32 of those mentioned are members of Albany Post No. 292 of the American Legion and it's Auxiliary, it appears obvious that the writer was attempting to imply that the American Legion through some of it's members would try to interfere with the business of the City of Albany.

May it be known to all concerned, that the American Legion had nothing to do with the above mentioned letter, and that none of our members authorized the use of his or her name in any such letter.

Furthermore, Albany Post No. 292 of the American Legion deplores the fact that any person would use the names of our citizens in such an underhanded manner.

SENIOR CITIZENS

846 Masonic Ave.

By Margaret Longpre

Once again it's time to mention the ecology drive. Please have your cans, tin and aluminum, cleaned and labels removed, bottles the same, clean and labels removed, and bring to the Center between the 29th of Nov. and the 5th of Dec. Elmer Bouchet will pick up and dispose of them.

The Thanksgiving dinner went off wonderfully well and we were all very pleased. I understand there were 84 present. The day was beautiful and spirits were high. Our Baby Senior was in such high spirits she was practically effervescent. Jeanne Hadfield had been taken into the Native Daughters of the Golden West the night before and she couldn't have been happier.

The Center is now starting to plan Christmas festivities.

On Dec. 17, a catered luncheon will be served at 1 p.m. Price will be $1. Reservations must be made and it will be for Seniors only. Gifts will be exchanged and it is requested that gifts be worth not less than $1.

Al and Ivy Severy celebrated their 62nd anniversary Nov. 16. Congratulations. We wish you many more.

Understand Maria Olivera is in Albany hospital.

A class on world affairs is being planned. More on this later. The nutrition class has been changed to 11 a.m. sharp. This class is every Wednesday. Please come. I am sure you will be pleased.

Navy Has New Recruiting Program

The Chief of Naval Personnel has selected Oakland Recruiting Station to take part in a new program which guarantees qualified young men a Navy school at the time of enlistment.

In the past no such guarantee could be made until the new enlistee had completed recruit training. This new program is a tremendous opportunity for young men to pick their career field before enlisting.

Contact the local recruiter at J.S. Navy Recruiting Station, Post Office Building, Room 222, 3th and Alice Streets, Oakland, Calif. 94612, or phone 444-2668 for details.

New Home Decoration Course Begins Nov. 30

Apartment dwellers and small homeowners now can expand their living quarters without moving walls or adding new construction.

All they need to perform this bit of magic are the specialized skills of interior decorating and accessorizing now being taught in a new Montgomery Ward consumer education course called "Limited Space Unlimited," which begins Nov. 30.

"This course is all about today and the limitations of our increasingly populated society," explains Linda Adams, Ward's Richmond home furnishings fashion coordinator. "The course is designed to give a homemaker the knowledge she needs to expand the living area of a home with space limitations."

The course is the third in a series of interior decorating courses available at any of Ward's Bay Area stores. More than 3,500 area men and women have completed the program's basic "Art of Interior Decorating Course" and "Styles in Your Life," a study of the evolution of furniture. Enrollment for both the "Arts of Interior Decorating" course and the "Limited Space Unlimited" course are under way at all Bay Area Ward stores now.

"Our objective is to give a student the skills he needs to transform his problem into an attractive solution without a big investment in a project that may not work for him," explains Linda.

The new course consists of six, 90-minute sessions, with no classes scheduled for the weeks of Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Years. Cost is $18.50.

Interested readers can enroll or inquire about all of Ward's consumer education programs by calling Montgomery Ward stores in Oakland or Richmond.

Bof A Christmas Checks to 585

Nearly $37 million in Bank of America Christmas Club checks, including $178,679.25 for 585 Albany residents, are being distributed to thrifty Californians this month.

In announcing this year's total, William McAuley, manager of Solano Avenue Branch, noted that savings are being distributed in plenty of time for the holiday shopping season.

The 1970 Christmas Club checks will average $211.70, down slightly from $218.12 last year, when a record breaking $91 million was accumulated statewide.

All told, nearly 200,000 Northern Californians tucked away $42.2 million this year, while Southern Californians collected $44.3 in 210,000 accounts.

In explaining the slight drop in the statewide figures, McAuley said this year's higher than usual
